No Guaranteed Results

Framework Media provides strategy, content, and creative execution services. We do not guarantee specific results, including but not limited to follower growth, views, engagement, leads, sales, or revenue. Content and business performance depend on many factors outside our control, including platform algorithms, audience behaviour, market conditions, competitor activity, and how a Client implements our recommendations. Nothing on this website should be interpreted as a promise or projection of a specific outcome for any individual business.

Third-Party Platforms

Third-party platforms (such as Instagram, TikTok, YouTube, and others) may change their features, algorithms, monetisation policies, or terms of service at any time, and without notice. Framework Media is not responsible for the impact of such changes on a Client's content, account, or business.

Case Studies and Examples

Any figures, case studies, testimonials, or examples referenced on this website reflect specific past engagements, under specific circumstances, and are not a guarantee of similar results for any other business. Past performance is not indicative of future results.

Not Professional Advice

Nothing on this website constitutes legal, financial, tax, or investment advice. Framework Media is a content strategy and growth agency, not a law firm, accounting firm, or financial advisory service. You should seek independent professional advice before making significant business, legal, or financial decisions.

Your Responsibility

Ultimately, business and content decisions — including what to publish, how to price offers, and how to run your business — remain the sole responsibility of the Client. Framework Media provides recommendations and execution support, not decision-making authority over your business.
